

South Florida Luxury Guide Winter 2017

THE GUIDE PALM BEACH

BY ROBIN HODES

PLAY

THE SPORT OF KINGS

Polo is back! From Dec. 31 through April 22, you can watch the world's finest two- and four-legged athletes in action at the International Polo Club Palm Beach, one of the premier polo destinations in the world. Attend a low-key match on the backfields during the week, or make a social afternoon of it during Sunday's featured stadium games, where you can enjoy polo, brunch and cocktails with some of Palm Beach's finest. 3667 120th Ave. S., Wellington; 561.204.5687; internationalpoloclub.com

Adolfo Cambiasso at International Polo Club Palm Beach

The Royal Poinciana Plaza

UNWIND

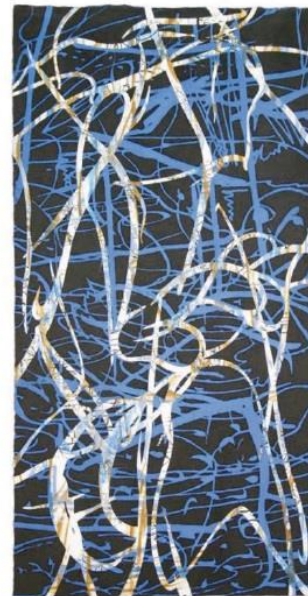

RETAIL THERAPY

Any seasoned shopper knows how acquiring that "just-right item" can lift and enliven the spirits. Why not take respite from life's stresses at The Royal Poinciana Plaza, an open-air destination in the heart of Palm Beach? Arranged around two beautiful courtyards, the 180,000-square-foot shopping center provides a tranquil place to gather with friends, sip coffee, shop and dine. Expect upcoming openings from Saint Laurent, Theory, the Paul Labrecque Salon and Spa and more to join luxury tenants such as Hermès, 100% Capri and Kirna Zabête. 340 Royal Poinciana Way, Palm Beach; 561.440.5440; theroyalpoinciana.com

ENRICH

COLOR COORDINATED

Through Dec. 10, Norton Museum of Art presents BRILLIANT, an exhibition that highlights some of the museum's most recent acquisitions. The pieces emphasize vivid, intense uses of color on paper, glass and photography, featuring pieces by Dale Chihuly, Arturo Herrera and Michael Craig-Martin, among other contemporary artists. 1451 S. Olive Ave., West Palm Beach; 561.832.5196; norton.org

Arturo Herrera's "Mine," 2007; pigmented abaca watermark on pigmented cotton base sheet with hand-cut collaged pulp painting, 60-by-30.375 inches; purchase, the generosity of the Young Friends Acquisition Council and by exchange, 2017; courtesy Sikkema Jenkins & Co.