BOUTIQUE BUZZ

The 100% Capri linen selection features whites, blues and corals

100% Capri

Shop a dreamy collection of Italian linen

By Melissa Puppo

The first word that comes to mind when stepping foot inside one of The Royal Poinciana Plaza's newest boutiques, 100% Capri, is crisp. As the store opens its doors one late morning in November, a customer confirms this thought: "It's so white and clean, my goodness!"

Rows of linen clothing delicately hang inside the space that features lightly colored wooden panel architecture, creating a sleek, modern shopping destination.

The man behind the sophisticated line is Antonino Aiello, who spends his time bouncing between his boutiques spanning from Capri, to St. Barth, to Ibiza, among other sought-after destinations. The Palm Beach storefront is one of only three locations in the U.S., with one in Bal Harbor and another coming to Miami Brickell City Center.

THE COLLECTION

100% Capri offers a selection of chic, clean resortwear for women, including dresses, pants, blouses, jackets and hats, all handmade in Italy. But more than women's wear, you can outfit the entire family with the store's selection of handcrafted menswear and adorable kid's clothing.

While white dominates the color scheme, there are also shades of beige, coral and blue that are ideal for your next vacation—or for strolling the streets of Palm Beach.

FINE GOODS

You may come for the Italian linen, but you'll stay for the Murano glass that is imported from the famous Venetian Island. And while you're at it, there are leather accessories to peruse for completing your look.

PALM BEACH ISLAND

Palm Beach's iconic shopping and lifestyle destination The Royal Poinciana Plaza debuts a slew of new tenants this season. From fitness and fashion to art and interiors, the hottest brands will be calling the island home. Clothing boutiques include 100% Capri, alice + olivia by Stacey Bendet, lululemon, Roller Rabbit, Stoney Clover Lane and Zadig & Voltaire. Art gallery GAVLAK and furnishings shop The Grand Tour by Caroline Rafferty will also open. And rounding out the additions is The Yoga Society of Palm Beach's newest Zen space.

Bright and colorful prints splash onto Worth Avenue with the opening of the Lilly Pulitzer flagship location. As the 62nd store of the preppy brand, the shop resembles a beautiful garden complete with hanging orchid installations, whimsical hand-painted fitting rooms, delicate seashell mirrors and even a juice stand serving flowery concoctions. The Gardens Mall also unveils the brand's largest shop in its new spacious location.

Worth Avenue welcomes another powerful fashion influencer with the opening of the Tory Burch boutique. The elegant yet accessible designer's new retail space is warm and inviting with a variety of Tory Burch and Tory Sport ready-to-wear garments. The shop also carries purses, shoes, eyewear, watches, accessories and swimwear. Décor pieces have a home here as well, including a collection from the tabletop collaboration with potter Dodie Thayer, a Palm Beach native whose signature lettuce ware was collected by influential women, from the Duchess of Windsor to Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis.

With a quintessential historic Palm Beach vibe perfectly blended with modern design and luxe amenities, The Colony Hotel introduces its new contemporary American restaurant CPB and its renovated Coral Ballroom. The hotel also launches new amenities for guests to enjoy, including custom paddleboards, decadent made-to-order beach picnics and the Palm Beach pink beach buggy that whisks guests to the beach and comes with a butler to set up that perfect spot for an umbrella and chair.

Forbes Five-Star seaside oasis The Eau Palm Beach Resort & Spa reveals its newly redesigned ballrooms and meeting spaces. Totalling more than 30,000 square feet of luxury space for parties, weddings or meetings for up to 700 guests, the hotel is set to welcome visitors with a sleek, modern design complete with plenty of tech updates, a new sound system and LED lighting.

Legendary vacation destination for celebrities, socialites and royalty alike, The Breakers Palm Beach is also home to Florida's oldest golf course. The completion of the multimillion-dollar project to renovate the Ocean Course brings a heightened level of playability with plenty of new amenities. Rees Jones has redesigned the original course—which was first created in 1897—with new green complexes, expanded undulations, new turf and an upgraded irrigation system. The 18-hole championship course is open exclusively to hotel guests and club members.

The hospitality brand known for exquisite taste and opulent service completes a multimillion-dollar renovation on its Four Seasons Resort Palm Beach oceanfront luxury sanctuary. The transformation includes a remodeled pool deck and additional second pool, redesigned guest rooms and magnificent new landscaping. The hotel also welcomes a new culinary partner to the property—Floride by acclaimed Argentine-Italian chef Mauro Colagreco. The chef's flagship restaurant in France holds two Michelin stars and is ranked third on The World's 50 Best Restaurants 2018 list.

3550 South Ocean is making waves. The first new beachfront residential development on Palm Beach Island in more than a decade opens soon. It features two- and three-bedroom residences that range from 2,700 to 3,000 square feet, starting at $2.3 million. The seven-story building also boasts five swanky penthouses complete with private rooftops and plunge pools, outdoor kitchens and sweeping ocean views. Owners will have access to a private concierge; VIP perks at Eau Palm Beach Resort & Spa; and the Star Jets International on-demand private jet charter services.

One of the island's trendiest hot spots unveils its redesigned lounge and bar area. As one of chef Clay Conley's Palm Beach signature restaurants, Buccan's new lounge interiors perfectly mirror the relaxed and posh environment of the island and its guests. A serene warm color palette is accentuated with lively sea foam green accents.
