Mom. The woman who gave you life. The woman who raised you, made sacrifices for you, and loves you more than you'll ever know. Also: the woman with supremely chic style, discriminating taste, and a killer yoga bod. With Mother's Day right around the corner, it's time to find that perfect token to show her just how much you think she rocks. Stumped? Three mamas at Ocean Drive HQ share the gifts they'll give (and hope to receive) this year.

Palm Beach Staycation at The Colony

"Whether with the family, or for a quiet getaway, Palm Beach is the perfect 70-mile drive north of Miami. With its picturesque pink-hued buildings, leafy hedges and cobble-stoned Via's, this international resort town for the jetset is filled with landmark hotels, restaurants that are a gastronomic's delight and jaw-dropping shopping. First stop would be the perfectly situated Colony Hotel, just a block off of the famed Worth Avenue and the pristine Atlantic shore. The Polo Club in The Colony makes for a refreshing welcome before hitting the beach or for some retail therapy. Visit Via Capri, 34 on Worth Avenue for custom made and monogrammed ankle-tie summer sandals by Francesco Pasta of Capri. Enjoy a stroll at The Royal Poinciana Plaza and brunch at the Sant Ambroeus."
