PBL LOVES:

Summer at The Royal Poinciana Plaza

by Charlotte Otremba

Newly-renovated and ever-buzzing Royal Poinciana Plaza is the new Palm Beach hot spot. Since its renovation and re-opening last year, Palm Beachers have flocked to the new "Royal" for its upscale shops, serene courtyard, and culinary destinations. We love that it will still be buzzing all summer long. Our top three recommendations? Treat yourself to a facial at Paul Labrecque, or stop by the new Coyo Taco for organic Mexican fare before ending your evening at Jazz Night at Sant Ambroeus. Summer is here!

ROYAL TREATMENT

Treat yourself royally this summer with beauty specials at Bioage MD and Dr. Dadurian, Nail Lab, and Paul Labrecque Salon and Spa, each chic spaces with beauty experts in their respective fields. PAUL LABRECQUE SALON AND SPA will be offering a package that includes a soothing environ toning facial, express Londontown manicure, and blowout for just $125. Stop by NAIL LAB for a mani/pedi for just $45 or Dr. Dadurian at BIOAGE, offering B12 immune boosters for $25 and an endymed intensif treatment for a "buy two get one" deal.

CHEERS TO COYO TACO

The colorful, casual Mexican eatery new to Royal Poinciana Plaza with outdoor seating and award-winning organic fare is on its way to becoming as big of a hit as its Miami locations. The menu gives a bold twist to authentic Mexican favorites - our favorites are the pulpo veracruzano (seared octopus tacos) and the fresh, from-scratch tortillas and guacamole prepared in-house. The bright, industrial-chic interior and ample outdoor seating (in cheery blue Acapulco chairs) make it a perfect summer spot for casual fare.

Happy Hour from 6 to 8 pm will offer Coyo margaritas for $8, glasses of wine for $7, and draft beers for $5!

BOOGIE DOWN TO JAZZ NIGHT AT SANT AMBROEUS

Milan meets Palm Beach meets Mad Men at The Royal: Sant Ambroeus's retro-contemporary interior is inspired by the Gran Caffés of the 1950s Italy, mixing bright, colorful mid-century pieces in clean lines offset by rich mahogany and Italian stone finishings. With locations in New York City and Southampton, Sant Ambroeus has been a hit since arriving in Palm Beach. Sip on the fresh Green Envy cocktail (to die for) and any of the delectable pasta dishes or elegant Mediterranean Sea Bass; leave room for the daily-made gelato.

Wednesday Jazz night is a terrific mid-week cap, with excellent musicians and a buzzing crowd. The bonus extended aperitivo until 10 p.m. with half price on selected menu items is a bonus. ♦
