WEST PALM BEACH

The closest shopping choice at this stop is nearby CityPlace (700 S. Rosemary Ave., West Palm, cityplace.com), located only one block from the station, where you'll find mainstream retail stores like Anthropologie, H&M and SEE luxury eyewear.

For a truly royal shopping experience, zip off on a five-minute Lyft or Uber ride across the bridge to Palm Beach's swanky The Royal Poinciana Plaza (340 Royal Poinciana Way, Palm Beach, theroyalpoincianaplaza.com) — a lush and fountain-filled mecca of 50 luxury shops and buzzy restaurants.

While you can splurge on a Birkin from Hermès, you'll want to peruse the plaza's "only in Palm Beach" stores too. Start at Joey Wölffer for Hamptons-inspired clothing, jewelry and accessories that'll motivate you to start planning summer vacay 2019; move on to Valentina Kova, where silk chiffon is a fall/winter staple with dresses and flowy jackets made for layering during our cooler nights; covet the feminine and daring lingerie made in France at Odile de Changy; and men will have their own "moment" at Cremieux, the brand's only location outside of Manhattan, where fall means soft-shoulder blazers and textured button-downs. If you're looking to dress up your child's wardrobe, head to the high-end children's boutique Bognar & Piccolini, where Daphne Oz is known to shop for her kids. It is Palm Beach, after all.

REJUVENATION BREAK:

Dine at the fancy-pants Sant Ambroeus restaurant, where you'll order the mouthwatering Pizza Tartufata, a thin, cracker-like crust topped with black truffle and an organic egg yolk that's ceremonially stirred into the cheese, and share pastas like the simple pomodoro with a silky San Marzano tomato sauce or the creamy cacio e pepe (linguine with Pecorino cheese and cracked pepper). Grab a cup of gelato from their cafe for your return ride on the Brightline. **||
